VOL 1 No. 1
JULY 1988

I've finally been able to start this newsletter about the PARTENs.
I've procrastinated long enough. Every time I find something great about these families, I get so excited I think "that's newsletter material!"
then I put it aside and behold! nothing happens. So, after much deliberation, mass confusion when all the goodies were brought out and convincing myself that this has to be done, I will do it!! There is no other PARTON newsletter on the press ---I've checked. And with a minimum of six (6) varient spellings here and abroad of the PARTIN name, there has to be a ton of information that I haven't even found. (Would you believe: PARTON, PARTIN, PARTEN, PARTAIN, PARTINTON, PIRTYN, PERTYN, Van PORTON, Von PARTON, PARDON and PARTYN ??)

So, join me in this journey and let's see what we can accumulate.
I would like to hear from you all, so send those pedigree charts, family sheets, family stories, queries and family pictures (carefully copied and returned to you)!!!

The best of hunting,

Glenna Parten Vincent

JOURNEYS

I never thought the PARTONS had a family crest but they may have had one on 1623 in Shropshire, England.

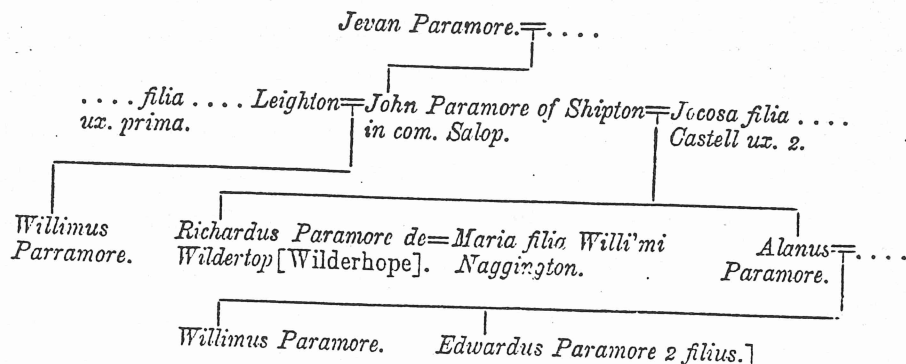

Last year, I was going through the Genealogy section at our Santa Maria Public Library and came across Marshall's, The Genealogists Guide, 1967. I never turn down a chance to check indexes for PARTEN's so, this book's index noted p. 610, PARTIN -Harleian Society, xxix, 392. What was or is a Harlein Society? Checking the front of the book, I found The Harleian Society Indexes to Quartered Coats in the Harleian Society obtainable from the Society of Genealogists. It turned out that our research librarian knew nothing about the Harleians or the Society of Genealogists. A friend told me the Society was in England!

I still didn't know how to obtain information on PARTIN, p, 610, so I wrote to Myra Gormley of Tacoma, WA who publishes an article called "Shaking Your Family Tree" in the Los Angeles Times. She kindly sent me the address of the Society of Genealogists in London, told me how to use international reply coupons for overseas research requests and sent me information on the Harleian Society and what it was, and where indexes are kept. A letter to London and the Society of Genealogists with my request of P. 610,xxix,392 of the Harleian Society and my international reply coupons was sent and in less than a month the following information was air mailed and received on this end. The Soc. of Gen were fast, efficient and inexpensive. Of course, I had a specific item for them to copy and that helped. So, don't give up on a problem. You can tell by this story that it was a round-about trip but the information was worthwhile---maybe not mine, but certainly someones!
